

BAM
CONSTRUCT
UK

«Senior Project Surveyor»

Contact information

Contact name	BAM Construct UK
Contact phone	01442 238 300
Location	England, East of England, Hertfordshire, St Albans

Job details

Salary	by agreement
Job type	Permanent

Requirements

A demonstrable and proven track record working for a large main contractor in the construction industry
Experience in managing and working within a team Qualified at degree level or working towards MRICS or equivalent professional level Should be comfortable working as a senior member of a project team with a willingness to contribute to all project success factors A positive, proactive individual that works collaboratively with colleagues and the client team An expert negotiator with a keen eye for detail Excellent communication skills Confident and experienced in the use of Microsoft Excel & Microsoft Word Experience of working with BIM and computer aided measurement tools

Job responsibilities

Actively managing risk and opportunity Seeking opportunities and development in design to improve the overall project delivery Management of client valuations and variations all the way through to agreeing the final account Attending client progress meetings and provide updates of current progress Maintaining client and consultant professional relationships Ensuring compliance with contract requirements Carrying out and overseeing procurement activities and ensuring production of robust orders Controlling commercial subcontract packages Producing monthly and quarterly cost reports assessing cost and value to date and projecting future cost and value Managing a team to cover all the aspects mentioned above.

This job is posted on the employment service «www.jobgear.co.uk»